MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Liaison Division, OLL

FROM:

Chief, Requirements and Services Group
Collection Requirements and Evaluation Staff

SUBJECT: Publications Source Survey

1. Initiated by the DDI about 15 years ago, the Publications Source Survey (PSS) records the extent that particular collection programs are used by DI analysts in reaching the conclusions of Directorate-sponsored finished intelligence.

2. We invite your comments about the publication and, more importantly, about the utility the PSS data does have or might have for your office. Frankly, we are weighing whether to continue the Survey, whether the likely future usefulness of the PSS is worth the cost in time and money.

3. How could you make use of the data? The PSS can be sorted by individual country or regions, by any time frame within the fifteen years, and by general topic area
